Rep. Kremer and Sen. Testin to Hold Press Conference before Hearing on Hemp Bill

Experts will join legislators in support of the Farm Freedom Act

Madison, WI – Representative Jesse Kremer (R-Kewaskum) and Senator Patrick Testin (R-Stevens Point) will host a press conference from 9:15-9:45 A.M. on Tuesday, October 10th in the Assembly Parlor to discuss the Farm Freedom Act (SB 119), a bill they have authored that would once again allow Wisconsin farmers to cultivate hemp.

Joining them will be several experts, including Jim Holte, the President of the Wisconsin Farm Bureau; Katie Moyer, a hemp farmer from Kentucky; Ken Anderson, the founder of Legacy Hemp LLC – the country’s first producer of AOSCA certified hemp; Dr. Paul Mahlberg, a professor emeritus of botany from the University of Indiana; and Kara O’Connor representing the Wisconsin Farmers Union.

When: 9:15-9:45 A.M. on Tuesday, October 10th
